

24 Rue Saint Jean · Aubusson · 23200 · Limousin · France

Tel: 0033 (0)5 55 67 53 92
Email: info@sallandrouze.com
www.sallandrouze.com

South African contact: Elisabeth Kretschmer on +27 83 252 4562
Email: elisabeth@kapstadtinternational.co.za
www.kapstadtinternational.co.za

An enchanting and romantic get-away in the beautiful tapestry town of Aubusson. Set amongst the green hills and bubbling rivers of the Limousin, in the heart of France.

Surrounding Countryside and Activities

Amidst the gentle green valleys and bubbling rivers of the Limousin you will see nature combining harmoniously with history. Here ancient trees shade venerable old buildings, while lush grasses push up between Roman flagstones.

It is this balance which draws countless visitors to the French countryside each year. Many, no doubt, leave with a sense that some inner equilibrium has been restored.

The countryside is a playground for vintage car enthusiasts, and lends itself to activities such as walking, hiking, cycling, horse-riding, canoeing, kayaking, fishing and golf, taking visitors through areas which are not only beautiful, but rich in history too.

Welcome to Hôtel Château Sallandrouze

A luxury retreat deep in the French countryside where you can relax and rejuvenate your soul.

You will find Hôtel Château Sallandrouze in the small historical village of Aubusson, world-renowned for its rich tapestry heritage and traditional style of living.

This former home of a legendary tapestry family, along with its 12th century chapel, has now been transformed into a beautiful boutique hotel comprising 10 luxury suites and 2 self-catering family apartments. The luxury hotel is available on a daily room basis, or as an entire château to share with family and friends for exclusive use. The ideal venue for an intimate country wedding and the ultimate get away from it all.

The Hotel hails from a time when interior proportions were sumptuous. The period fire-places, gilt mirrors, high ceilings, decorative cornices and large French windows are all original fixtures, imbued with an age and elegance that cannot be imitated.

Romantic Country Weddings

Imagine your wedding invitation went something like this: Marriage service to take place in the 12th Century Chapelle of St Jean de la Cour at two o'clock, followed by a reception in the banquet hall of the Hôtel Château Sallandrouze.

It is what dreams are made of, and for good reason: the romance of the French countryside is unrivalled, and it enjoys no better representation than at Hôtel Château Sallandrouze. The banquet room comfortably seats 40, and spills out onto the terraced garden where a marquee can be set up to accommodate larger wedding parties. Additional accommodation for your guests can be arranged in and around the town.

Stay in Style

Ten elegant suites, individually decorated and luxuriously appointed with en-suite bathrooms, each with separate bath and shower.

All suites are generous in size and are furnished in a 'Classic French' style that does justice to the scale and grace of the architecture.

Each room has its own unique character and provides utmost privacy whilst maintaining an intimate and relaxed atmosphere.

Fine Dining and Sumptuous Cuisine

Sample fine dining in our elegant dining room and conservatory or indulge in Bistro dining in the rustic cellar. Alternatively, you can feast on the terrace outside, under the stars.

Enjoy the terrace during summery days, while in the cooler months the Café moves indoors to the sumptuous dining room and flows into the conservatory with its 100 year old vine.

From the moment the stylish Café Sallandrouze opened its doors, the restaurant, boasting decadent French cuisine, has become the chosen place for family and friends to meet.

